WEB SITE RESOURCES ON FUNDING
--------------------------------------

NATIONAL RESOURCE CENTER ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: RESOURCES ON FUNDING

Federal Funding Matrix

<http://www.nrcdv.org>

<http://www.pcadv.org>

The Federal Funding Matrix is a compilation of federal grant opportunities currently available from the federal government that may be of interest to domestic violence/social change organizations.

State Funding Matrix

<http://www.nrcdv.org>

The State Funding Matrix is a state-by-state and territory categorization of state and territory funding statute(s), the corresponding type of funding source and the purpose of the funding. Updated annually, the State Funding Matrix is available in print format from the NRCDV and is also available in PDF format on the NRCDV's Web site.

E-Mail Funding Alerts

The NRCDV provides a synopsis of funding opportunities, both federal and private, as they become available via e-mail alerts.

For more information please contact Susan Brown, NRCDV Librarian, by phone: 800-537-2238, Ext. 135 or by e-mail: sab@pcadv.org.

GOVERNMENT DATABASES/PORTALS

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance

<http://www.cfda.gov/>

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) profiles all Federal grant programs, including over 300 programs from the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). CFDA also lists specific contacts for obtaining additional information and application forms.

Federal Register

<http://www.gpoaccess.gov/fr/advanced.html>

The Federal Register is the official daily publication for rules, proposed rules, and notices of Federal agencies and organizations (grant information), as well as executive orders and other presidential documents. It is updated daily by 6:00AM and is published Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. GPO Access contains Federal Register volumes from 59 (1994) to the present. Documents are available in Summary, PDF, ASCII text, or HTML format. HTML documents are available from 2000 forward and provide hypertext links to web sites mentioned in the FR document. The active HTTP-link feature will be added to previous Federal Register databases in the near future. The HTML documents can be saved as text files with no loss or change in data.

FirstGov.gov

<http://www.firstgov.gov/Citizen/Topics/Benefits.shtml>

FirstGov.gov is the official information portal for the U.S. Federal Government. It provides informational and transactional electronic services to citizens, to businesses and non-profits, to federal employees and to governments (federal, state, and local). Information can be accessed by topic, by using the search engine, or by browsing by federal, state, local or tribal government.

Grants.gov

<http://www.grants.gov>

Grants.gov is the federal electronic grant portal with links to various U.S. Government agencies' funding assistance programs for individuals and organizations. The Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) is the managing partner for the Federal E-Grants (Grants.gov). Grants.gov provides links to each agency from its web site. Information is arranged by topic.

GOVERNMENT PROGRAM - SPECIFIC SITES

GovBenefits.gov

<http://www.govbenefits.gov/jsp/GovBenefits.jsp>

This is an online questionnaire, which can provide information as to what benefits an individual is entitled. No personal information such as name, phone number, Social Security, or any other identifying information needs to be entered. Upon answering some simple questions GovBenefits.gov will generate a list of government benefits an individual may be eligible for and information on how to apply. GovBenefits.gov does not keep any data entered.

GOVERNMENT FAITH-BASED & COMMUNITY INITIATIVE WEB SITES

White House Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/government/fbci/index.html>

The White House Office has put together a list of more than 100 Federal programs, which provide funding. In addition to specific funding opportunities this web site also contains information on the federal grant system, technical assistance opportunities, the seven collaborating federal agencies, conferences, legislation and the Compassion Capital Fund.

Department of Education's Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives

Department of Health & Human Services (DHHS): Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives

<http://www.hhs.gov/fbci/>

The Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives (CFBCI) goal is to make sure that grassroots leaders can compete for federal dollars, receive greater private support, and face fewer bureaucratic barriers. Information on how to apply for federal funds, the Compassion Capital Fund, publication, current funding opportunities, upcoming events and links to other FBCI Centers and the White House OFBCI.

Department of Health & Human Services (DHHS): Compassion Capital Fund (CCF)

<http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/ccf/>

The Compassion Capital Fund helps faith-based and community organizations increase their effectiveness and enhance their ability to provide social services to serve those most in need. The Compassion Capital Fund administers two grant programs: the Demonstration Program and the Targeted Capacity Building Program. The CCF Demonstration Program funds intermediary organizations that provide faith-based and community organizations training, technical assistance, and capacity-building sub-awards. The CCF Targeted Capacity Building Program funds faith-based and community organizations with one time, $50,000 awards to increase their capacity to serve targeted social service priority areas.

Guide to DHHS Grants

<http://www.hhs.gov/fbci/funding.html>

The web site provides current funding opportunities from DHHS, upcoming events, resources, information about the Compassion Capital Fund, announcements and the ability to register for information by mail or list serve. Among the resources available is the Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives: Guide to HHS Grants. The Grant Guide rates each grant program from DHHS according to the type of opportunity it presents to small grassroots organizations. Information provided by the guide includes: agency, contact, phone, e-mail, web site, grant length, when the grant is announced, whether subcontracting is permitted, total allocation and the funding type. The manual is available online in PDF format.

Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD): HUD's Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives
