Working to improve societal and community responses to domestic violence and, ultimately, prevent its occurrence.

Providing a wide range of free, comprehensive, and individualized technical assistance and training, and specialized resource materials.

WHAT CAN WE DO FOR YOU

- Technical assistance and training - individualized TA and training on domestic violence policy, practice and research for individuals and organizations seeking information on domestic violence and related issues.
- Specialized resource materials - fact sheets, resource packets, applied research papers, annotated resource lists, curricula, training materials, and policy briefs to support domestic violence intervention and prevention efforts at the individual, community and societal levels.
- Special projects - initiatives that deeply explore issues and develop more comprehensive assistance to a particular constituent group.
  - The Domestic Violence Awareness Project (DVAP) - supporting community awareness and education efforts. (<http://dvam.vawnet.org>)
  - The Women of Color Network (WOCN) - promoting and supporting the leadership of women of color advocates. (<http://womenofcolornetwork.org>)
  - VAWnet: the National Online Resource Center on Violence Against Women - comprehensive, full-text, searchable electronic resources addressing domestic and sexual violence. (<http://www.vawnet.org>)
  - Documenting Our Work (DOW) - designing tools to capture the scope, value and impact of local and state domestic violence programs.
  - Building Comprehensive Solutions to Domestic Violence (BCS) - promoting more holistic program and policy responses to domestic violence.

The NRC DV also provides support to community-based programs as needed, including helping design and implement special projects, develop trainings, group facilitation, and preparation of reports.
