

Girls for Gender Equity:

Centering Girls of Color within the Racial and Gender Justice Movement of the 21st Century

Tuesday, October 25

3:00-4:30pm Eastern / 12:00-1:30pm Pacific

Get inspired and activated as Joanne N. Smith, Founder and Executive Director of Girls for Gender Equity and Kelly Miller, Executive Director of the Idaho Coalition Against Sexual & Domestic Violence, share their radical and visionary approaches to promoting racial and gender justice and the critical importance it has to addressing and preventing domestic and sexual violence.

Presenters:

Joanne N. Smith will be discussing her work to create a New York City Young Women's Initiative and inspire national intergenerational advocacy.

Kelly Miller will frame the conversation by sharing the transformational intersectional work of the Idaho Coalition Against Sexual & Domestic Violence in centering their work on the liberation of the last girl, the most marginalized communities.
