

NOW HIRING

CHANGE MAKERS

Bring your big ideas, bold vision and fearless leadership to this full-time position with the National Resource Center on Domestic Violence.

Communications Manager

The National Resource Center on Domestic Violence is looking for a full-time, dedicated change maker to provide collaborative leadership and oversight to NRCDV's communications strategy. We embrace an intersectional approach to addressing and preventing domestic violence and any form of gender-based violence that works to dismantle all forms of structural oppression and the people it impacts

The communications manager will ensure effective and consistent branding and messaging as well as advancement of NRCDV's values and mission. The ideal candidate ensures that NRCDV's multiple communications platforms effectively build knowledge, advance survivor-defined advocacy, promote best intervention and prevention policies and practices, and create and sustain supportive linkages with other related social and racial justice movements.

If you are organized, detail oriented, a creative problem-solver, & passionate about gender-based violence & other social justice movements...we want you on our team.

We are searching for someone invested in...

- Standing with individuals & groups affected by multiple systems of oppression;
- Celebrating diversity & the vitality & strength it brings to our work, communities & society;
- Embracing self-care & community connection.

If your personal values and approach to change is aligned with NRCDV's mission, core values, Empowerment Principles and WE STAND statement...we want you on our team.

Salary range for this remote-friendly full-time position is 69,000 to 75,000, along with a robust benefits package including comprehensive healthcare insurance, retirement plan, vacation & personal time. We are committed to a diverse workplace & supporting our staff with ongoing career development opportunities & life balance. Occasional travel to NRCDV Offices in Harrisburg, PA and/or other locations may be required.

The National Resource Center on Domestic Violence is an Equal Opportunity Employer. People of color, women, LGBTQ candidates and people of diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. We are committed to a diverse workplace and an environment that supports work-life balance.

More details in the full position description nrcdv.org/careers.
Send cover letter and resume to humanresources@nrcdv.org.