Technical Assistance Request and Response Path

Request Received
Email • Phone • In-Person Networking • Mail • Fax Website Form

Individualized TA provision helps inform and is informed by broader TA and training efforts to the advocacy field.
- Indication of Trends/Emerging Issues
- Intensive/Targeted TA
- Publication Development
- Webinar Presentations
- Workshop Facilitation

Typical Requests
TA Specialist independently responds to the request

Examples
- General DV info
- Research & statistics
- Survivors in need of referrals for services
- DV awareness & public education
- Online research
- Social networking

Complex/Unusual Requests
TA specialist, in collaboration with the Capacity Building and Education Team, coordinates a response

Examples
- Intersection of multiple issues
- Survivor requests for help in resolving unmet needs
- Urgent requests from White House Advisor on VAW and other government agencies

Special Issue
TA Specialist triages to the appropriate NRCDV team or partner for research and response

- Policy & Research Team
  Examples
  - TANF/Public benefits
  - Healthy marriage
  - Backlash/Opposition
  - Program or topic specific funding

- Domestic Violence Resource Network
  Examples
  - Culturally-specific resources
  - Child custody matters
  - Trauma-informed services and supports

- Partners in the Field
  Examples
  - Sexual assault
  - Legal statutes
  - Religious and spiritual needs of survivors

Research
Data collection, review, and analysis is conducted using the NRCDV TA database, the NRCDV library database, VAWnet.org, state coalition websites, and other online resources

Response Sent & Entered into NRCDV TA Database